FORK IN THE ROAD

Cozy up for tea

Themed teas

The Long Gallery at The St. Regis, Atlanta

Located in the Buckhead area of Atlanta, the balcony-level Long Gallery of The St. Regis serves afternoon tea overlooking the lobby. The mahogany furniture and plush upholstered pieces give the feel of a private living room. Themes vary monthly: For Fashion Month in September, the hotel has partnered with the Italian designer Ferragamo for a tea called Stiletto and Scones. White-gloved waiters in tuxedos serve a fashion-themed tea menu.

The October event will be an In the Pink Tea honoring breast cancer awareness.
